Premier Oliver to Commence To-night Island Campaign

Electors of Oak Bay to Hear Head of Administration; Future Political Meetings; More Nominations Reported.

Hon. John Oliver this evening will open his speaking tour of Vancouver Island by an address to Saanich electors in the St. Mary's Hall, Oak Bay, and there is every prospect that the hall will be filled to the limit when the proceedings commence.

The gathering is being held to further the candidature of F. A. Pauline in Saanich riding, and preparations are being made for a large attendance.

At Esquimalt To-morrow.

Esquimalt voters will hear the Premier to-morrow evening, when he will be the leading speaker at the public meeting which the Liberals will hold in the Sailors' Club. At that meeting Mrs. Alfred Watt, M.B.E., and the candidate, H. C. Helgesen, will also speak.

TIME TABLE OF POLITICAL EVENTS

Thursday, Nov. 11, 8 p.m.—Saanich Liberal Association: public meet, St. Mary's Hall, Burnside, Oak Bay.

Friday, Nov. 12, 8 p.m.—Esquimalt Liberal Association: public meeting, Sailors' Club, Esquimalt Road.

8 p.m.—Soldier-Labor Party in Saanich: organization meeting at St. Mark's Hall, Boleskin Road.

Monday, Nov. 15, 8 p.m.—Liberal meeting for women only at Princess Theatre.

USES "IMAGINATION," SAYS THE PREMIER

Platform Assertions of W. J. Bowser Checked Up by Hon. John Oliver

Premier Oliver, in a statement issued to-day, charges W. J. Bowser, K.C., leader of the Conservative party, who is now touring the interior of the Province with "drawing room" organization, rather than dealing with facts, as regards assertions the Opposition Leader is making in his speeches.

"My attention has been directed to the Vancouver Province's report of a speech delivered by Mr. Bowser at Cranbrook, more particularly his reference to the Pacific Great Eastern Railway," says the Premier in his statement.

"Mr. Bowser alleges that $20,000 had been expended in building a spur track to a gravel pit from which not a carload of gravel had been taken, because it was found that the pit was mud and not gravel. The Chief Engineer of the C.P.R. advised me that the cost of putting in the spur track evidently referred to south of Lac La Hache was $7,582.21, and that enough ballast was taken from this pit to cover seventeen miles of line."

Bought Canadian Engines.

Another statement made by Mr. Bowser was that three engines had been purchased in Chicago at enormous cost, and that they were found to be too heavy for the track and spread the rails. The locomotives evidently referred to were not purchased in Chicago, but were built by the Canadian Locomotive Co., Kingston, Ont., in accordance with specifications prepared by Mr. William Rae, Civil Inspector of Railways and Equipment. Mr. Rae consulted with the designing engineers of the locomotive work in preparing the specifications for these engines, which

INTEREST GROWS IN BY-ELECTION

Increases as Polling Date in East Elgin, Ontario, Draws Nearer

Hon. T. A. Crerar, Leader of Progressive Party, Will Aid Farmers' Candidate

London, Ont., Nov. 11.—As voting day draws near the interest in the East Elgin Federal by-election is increasing to fever heat. All three candidates: W. H. Charlton, Independent Liberal; John L. Stansell, National Liberal; and George Patterson and S. H. McDermott, United Farmers, are making a strenuous fight.

J. L. Stansell, the Government candidate, is also a farmer. Some of his supporters are making wagers at even money that the Government candidate will beat the United Farmers.

The tariff and whether or not Canada is to continue the party system or branch off into group government are the two issues which are holding the attention of the campaign. November 22 will be polling day.

Crerar to Speak.

Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressive Party, announced to-day that he would take part in the East Elgin by-election campaign on behalf of the United Farmers' candidate. It is probable that Dr. Michael Clark, M.P., for Red Deer, also will go East to take part in the campaign.

Montreal, Nov. 11.—Captain Roald Amundsen, Arctic explorer, has sent the following telegram to the Berlingsko Tidende from East Cape Siberia, bearing date of August 13:

"We sailed from Nome immediately after my wife of August 8 with only three men, as the others claimed wages of £300 monthly. The following days we were held up by pack ice in Bering Sea. All aboard well."

The foregoing is the first direct message from Captain Amundsen since he set out on his Polar expedition from Nome. Maude East Cape is about 170 miles northwest of Nome on the Bering Strait.

TO CONTROL GOLD BULLION EXPORTS

The British Government Asks Commons to Pass Bill Making Provision

London, Nov. 11.—In moving in the House of Commons last night the second reading of the bill to continue control over exports of gold and silver bullion, which expired, on the conclusion of the last of the peace treaties, Stanley Baldwin, joint Financial Secretary to the Treasury, said that, as the Government was anxious as the Government was again to see a market in gold, both for export and import, yet having regard for the condition of exchange and the position of British currency, there was no authority who would admit that the time had arrived for such freedom.

The bill, Mr. Baldwin added, did not make control permanent, but it empowered the Government to impose control by Order-in-Council whenever the situation demanded it. The bill also provides that the coinage of coining, Mr. Baldwin said, which would become an offence punishable by imprisonment for two years instead of a simple fine as at present.

DUEL CHALLENGE

Paris, Nov. 11.—"Dueling is a foolish practice and there is no place for it in France since the war," said Leon Daudet, a member of the Chamber of Deputies. He is also a leader of the Rightist Party in France, in refusing a challenge from Paul Denise, a deputy, to meet him on the field.

The challenge of M. Denise was the outgrowth of an article signed by M. Daudet and printed in his newspaper Action Francaise, in which Daudet adversely criticized the late Camille Pétain, former Minister of War, who was a brother-in-law of Denise. Daudet, prior to the war, fought eleven duels, using swords or pistols.

SNEEZES CAUSE

DEATHS IN INDIA

New York, Nov. 10.—Sneezes and superstition cost many lives annually in India.

This is the statement of Dr. Anna Degenring of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, who has just returned here on a year's furlough after fourteen years as a doctor in India.

"A sneeze means a great impending calamity to the Indian mind," said Dr. Degenring. "What happens on the day that one hears a sneeze is sure to turn out ill, and the Indian will enter upon no undertaking of importance on such a day. Many of our patients have refused to have operations on which their lives depended on the day that had been arranged for, because they happened to sneeze the morning or even to hear someone else sneeze."

Indian belief in auspicious days is another "hobgoblin" in the path of the medical missionary there, Dr. Degenring said. Soon after an Indian child is born, the soothsayer reveals to the family its lucky star and its lucky days. Indians who fall ill or are hurt in accidents persist in waiting for their auspicious days before sending for a doctor.

ARMISTICE DAY.

Two years ago to-day the armies of half the world ceased their martial activities. Millions of men, blood-smeared, footsore and weary, breathed freely once more in an atmosphere of peace. For more than four years the soul of humanity had been tried. The torture in the home and the torture of the battlefield had produced a world of heroes. The end came with dramatic suddenness. Prussianism and the Prussian creed humbled themselves before the power of a just cause.

During the intervening period the map of the world has been re-drawn. Transformations have taken place in many lands. There are still reminders that conquest by the sword is not yet reduced to a theory; but within the space of two years mankind has been brought to realize the uselessness, the horror, the waste and the gigantic inhumanity of war. Out of a world of chaos there came the peace. Out of a world of peace must come the permanent re-union of peoples.

As the eleventh day of November comes round each year the memory of those days of agony will be revived. By the very process should the minds of men unite in war against war. The silent reminder should be as valuable in its suggestion as it is tragic in its import. It should find the peoples of the earth gradually nearing that stage of international brotherhood in which national destinies may be realized by peaceful evolution and good-will.

"THINGS ARE COMING RIGHT."

Although he felt obliged to admit that there were still perils in the path of peace, still trouble some questions outstanding, Mr. Lloyd George sounded an unusually optimistic note throughout his Guildhall speech on Tuesday night. The Prime Minister did not spare himself in variety of subject. Not a single issue in which the world in general and the British Empire in particular find themselves directly or indirectly involved was omitted from brief or lengthy reference as the occasion appeared to demand. But in spite of occasional punctuation by qualification and mental reservation, wherein the Prime Minister found himself definitely unable to draw upon his fund of optimism, his review of world conditions and his hopes for the future were summed up in four words: "Things are coming right."

Mr. Lloyd George betrayed no particular apprehension about the menace of Bolshevism. He declared that it would pass away, although none is more appreciative of the danger to the rest of the world of a Russia sunken and sodden in anarchy. He referred to Great Britain's industrial situation as possessive of disquieting signs, and made it plain that the major part of his recent task involved a demand to retain the balance between the extremists on both sides. That is to say he was confronted with the duty of discovering a path to peace between that which the exponents of direct action and those who desired to smash trades unionism altogether were attempting to hack for themselves by all the subtle means at their disposal. That he was successful by bringing about a settlement on a give and take basis adds one more triumph to his many personal victories since he became Prime Minister.

At the end of two years of a peace which followed the greatest war in all history, however, the annual function at the Guildhall found the British Empire standing four square to a troublous world without any danger of destruction. The miniature cracks in her superstructure are of a temporary nature. But as long as the freedom of British institutions remains there is little to be feared from the fanatical creeds of the "new democracy." The world has been badly knocked about; but her hurts will heal if capable hands are allowed to dress them.

CHURCH UNION.

As a fitting conclusion to an appeal for church union at Christ Church Cathedral in Montreal on Sunday morning Bishop Farthing gave expression to the following sentiments: "Let us get into our minds that it is a sin to have the Church of Christ divided; let us forget the dead past and its controversies, the bitterness and the prejudices and let us come as penitents to try and bring about this re-union of Christendom."

Without a doubt the appeal of the Lambeth Conference for a re-union of the Christian bodies has produced an excellent effect if not the promise that tangible results will follow. If, as appears to be the case, the response from the free Churches has been marked by a lively sense of difficulties still to be overcome, there is little doubt about the completeness with which the spirit of the Anglican Bishops is reciprocated. In fact the initial marvel was the fact that a document on this particular subject should have won the assent of all but three of the two hundred and fifty Bishops assembled.

The problem of a closer relationship between the Church of England and the various bodies of the Protestant Non-conformists has naturally attracted most attention as the more immediately practical part of the programme. The Lambeth resolutions, however, contemplated Christian re-union in a wider sense, and a significant development bearing upon this is found in the idea of handing over Church of England buildings in the City of London for worship according to the rites of the Eastern Churches.

In spite of the difficulties that remain in the path of complete re-union a striking commentary upon a growing sense of friendliness between Canterbury and Rome is evident in an article recently contributed to "Blackfriars" by Father Vincent MacNabb—who speaks in the greatest friendliness of the Lambeth pronouncement—in which he observes that when two parties to a quarrel cannot outdo each other in accepting the blame for it the quarrel is nearing its end. This and other suggestions of Father MacNabb may be an individual expression of opinion; but the fact that they are given a leading place in the monthly organ of the Dominican Fathers makes it a sufficiently interesting phenomenon.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

According to a dispatch from Vancouver the Superintendent of British Columbia's employment bureaus has stated definitely that there is no surplus work to offer in the district and no immediate prospect of better conditions. If this is the case in the Vancouver district it can be taken for granted that other communities are experiencing similar circumstances. It is no secret, of course, that the official figures on file at the Parliament Buildings indicate a number of men available largely in excess of positions vacant. This is all the more reason why some sort of co-operative arrangement should be entered into between British Columbia and the Provinces immediately east of the Rockies, in order that the continual influx of labor—which takes place every winter season—might be checked before it has had an opportunity of aggravating local conditions, any further. Nobody relishes a public advertisement telling all and sundry that there is unemployment in this Province; but even that would be better than a bread line for the next four months. The municipalities, however, might perform a useful service with a circular letter to aldermanic bodies on the Prairies.

NOTE AND COMMENT

In according his support to Mr. Bowser Canon Hinchliffe declares that he owes a prior allegiance to truth and justice. But does not this very natural confession on the part of one so highly esteemed materially qualify his value to the Conservative ticket?

The Leader of the Opposition told his audience at Nelson that the Conservatives supported the Mothers' Pension Act and the Minimum Wage Act. What other course could they reasonably follow?

If he could have his way Mr. W. B. McInnes, Independent Liberal candidate for Comox, would pass a liquor Act that would permit any individual to get what he liked. A frank confession; but the suggestion is not original.

Canada's Department of Geology cannot afford to keep a chemist according to a Hamilton dispatch describing the return of an oil sample unanalyzed. Never mind; it has a Tariff Commission and it had a Board of Commerce until recently.

Senator J. D. Taylor informed a Conservative audience last night that Premier Oliver is a man "soared with disappointment and whose heart is gangrened with malice." If the description were not so idiotic and so far removed from the truth the Premier might be tempted to remind the Senator of his campaign of vituperative verbiage against the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier prior to 1911.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS*SUGAR PRICES IN PHILA.-DELPHIA.

(The Philadelphia Ledger, Oct. 6.) The refinery price of sugar in this city dropped yesterday to twelve cents a pound. That is less than half what was asked by the refiners at the beginning of last summer. The only three cents above price during the era of government control.

Fourteen cents was the lowest price found in any retail store yesterday. That price was being charged by an isolated few in the forty stores of chain concern. The manager of the concern said yesterday he believed sugar would be thirteen cents a pound by Thursday.

He said also he had come to believe that a ten-cent level was likely to be reached within two or three months.

MILD, OPEN WINTER FORECAST BY INDIANS.

(The Minneapolis Journal.) Indians of the rice lake north of Duluth, Minn., are returning with the news that the winter will be a full fall for the householder's benefit, but mighty poor for ducks. The beautiful weather has caused the waterfowl to remain in their breeding haunts and only a few birds have made trips as far south as the northern section of the State. Indians encountered by hunters in the north woods did not expect to be hunting as early as they did. They mean to be expected. The muskrats are building their houses along the lines of summer cottages and the bark of the trees is unusually thin, all of which the Indians declare means a mild winter.

AN IMPROVED SPIRIT.

(The Ottawa Citizen.) One section of the people of Ottawa has recognized its duty to keep the Capital a convention city. This was shown the other day when the owners of motor cars turned out in such numbers to entertain visiting Shriners and members of the Boston Artillery Company by showing them the city. It was an indication of the striking change that it was a discouraging task to get automobile owners to assist. Only a few of them realized it was a civic duty to help in this way. It was anybody else's business rather than theirs.

WHERE IT STARTED*SODA WATER.

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The first use of fruit syrup with soda water was credited to Eugene Philadelphian, particularly in the 19th century. The modern soda fountain was invented by C. D. Dow, New Hampshire. It was introduced into Europe in 1860. To Robert M. Green goes the credit for the invention of ice-cream soda.

WHY IS THE LEEK THE EMBLEM OF WALES?

(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The only plant of the "allium" tribe in England in pre-Saxon times seems to have been the leek, and it is probable that the word "leek" is derived from the Celtic tribes, the Welsh still retain it as an emblem of their nationality.

The leek or leek was also an important emblem in Anglo-Saxon times, for they called their gardens "leac-gardens," and the gardener was a "leak-warrior." As other plants like stevia and the seed pod of the plant "leek" or "leak" with a prefix denoting some peculiarity of the plant. This garlic was formerly "one-leek" or "the leek with a spear from the spike-like stem and head of the seed pod," and the onion was "one-leek" or "one-leak," because it did not throw off side bulbs.

MEMORY OF FALLEN HEROES OF THE WAR HONORED BY EMPIRE

During the brief service in the Abbey, the King stood at the foot of the grave, the members of the Royal Family ranging themselves on either side.

Group of Women.

Of all the witnesses that packed Whitehall or crowded the Abbey, a little band of approximately 100 women in the Abbey received the most reverent attention. They had been selected for the seats of honor because they had lost their husband and all her sons. Every woman in Great Britain so悲痛地 lost her husband and all her sons.

A girl who wrote she had lost nine brothers killed or missing was given a ticket, as was a twelve-year-old boy who wrote: "The man in the coffin might be my daddy." In all 8,000 tickets were issued.

Honored by French.

The body of the unknown soldier arrived here last night after it had been honored by Marshal Foch and other French officials in France from the time it was exhumed until the escort of French destroyers turned for home after seeing the British destroyer Verdun, which bore the body, safely into the harbor at Dover.

It was brought to London in the same railway car used to transport the bodies of Edith Cavell, nurse, who was given a guard of honor by the Germans, and Captain Charles Fryatt, the British captain of a British steamer, who also met death before a German firing squad. It lay last night in a room especially set apart and fitted for it in Victoria Station, and a guard of honor remained there until

V. C. Men.

The immediate guard which escorted the body on its trip through the crowded and silent streets from the station to Whitehall was composed of 100 men of all services who won the Victoria Cross. The pallbearers were Field Marshals and Admirals of the Fleet, including Field Marshal Earl Haig, Admiral Earl Beatty, who commanded the Grand Fleet, and Major-General Sir Hugh Trenchard, commander of the British air forces. Battalions of Guards, with their bands and a few officials, made up the remainder of the escort.

The cortège proceeded through Grosvenor Gardens and Grosvenor Place to Hyde Park, and thence to Buckingham Palace, Pall Mall and Whitehall. As the procession started from the station a battery in Hyde Park fired a Field Marshal's salute of nineteen guns, and just as the coffin was lowered into the grave, another battery of Horse Guards fired a similar salute.

Soil From France.

The grave was filled with soil brought from the grave from which the body was exhumed in France and was covered with what is known as the Padre's Flag, one of the most famous flags figuring in the war. It was taken to France early in the struggle by a chaplain who used it scores of times at funerals on the field, and it had been much coveted by many regiments to which the chaplain has loaned it for short periods.

With Honors.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—A special dispatch from the Toronto Star from London says:

Some mother's son who fought and died and was buried as unknown, came back to England yesterday to be buried with a Field Marshal's honors.

Not Identified.

Whether the casket which arrived here to-day from France contained the remains of an English, Scottish, Irish, Welsh, Australian, New Zealand or Canadian soldier was not known. No attempt was made to identify the body in any way. Every mother who lost a son with the British forces could feel that this might be her boy.

The body, picked at random from among the silent hosts at Ypres, will be buried to-day in Westminster Abbey, where it will rest with the remains of British statesmen, rulers and warriors.

Messages.

Premier Lloyd George wired warm thanks and an expression of appreciation to Marshal Foch for the tribute paid in France to the body of the British warrior.

King George sent a message of goodwill to President Millerand, in which he expressed his sincere friendship for France and confidence in the future. The King also sent messages of a similar character to the Sovereigns and Presidents of all the Allied Nations.

BURN OTHER FUEL IS ADVICE OF THE
IMPERIAL OIL CO

School Board Is Told Hope of Oil Fuel Supply Very Slender

The School Board last night authorized the changing over of the High School heating plant from oil to coal burning, the work to be done as soon as possible in order that the remaining reserves of fuel oil may be conserved for use while the night classes are in operation.

The change is necessitated by the announcement by the Imperial Oil Company that after December there may be no more oil fuel available, and that the earlier hopes that the supply would be again available next June are now very slender, and not to be relied upon.

The Imperial Oil Company, while regretting the necessity said, "Our advice to you is to change your heating plant to some other fuel."

Non-Resident Pupils.

Secretary Cowper, of the Saanich School Board, asked the Victoria Board to do something for students whose homes are in Saanich, but who are temporarily residing in the city, or students whose homes are in other portions of the Province, but who are living in Saanich while attending the High School.

His letter stated that four Saanich students come under the first class, and only one under the latter. The Saanich Board was willing to pay for either class, but did not care to bring the matter to the Finance Committee, referred to the Finance Committee for consideration, as although making a charge for the four pupils would bring the greater revenue for this present year, yet the results it was said might be somewhat of a boom-crash in the long run.

Use of Schools.

A request by W. A. MacAdam, of the Victoria Liberal Association, that the School Board allow the use of all the city schools for political meetings during the election campaign was sympathetically received, but the Board was adamant against allowing the High School to be included in the permission.

Trustee Mrs. Spofford presented the report of the Finance Committee which showed that only by the exercise of remarkable ingenuity will the Board come through the year without exceeding the estimates. Mrs. Spofford stated that the estimates of $5,000 for supplies would probably be exceeded by $2,500 by the end of the year, the bill already passed totaling $10,000. Expenditures on grounds and buildings were expected to be $4,000 above the estimates, and there were many other heads which between them absorbed the savings which had been made in other departments.

Asked for a summary of the situation Mrs. Spofford said: "It is imperative that further expenditures cease, if we are to come out even at the end of the year. We cannot spend another avoidable dollar."

More Help Wanted.

Superintendent Grey asked the Board to appoint another school carpenter for the balance of the year, pointing out that of 40 schools, attended by 5,500 pupils, it was impossible to keep things from deteriorating unless repairs are made at the occasion for them develops. He stated that the carpenter now employed is overwhelmed with work, that in his notebook are now entered over a hundred small jobs awaiting attention, and cited as an example the basketball stands at Victoria West school, which are still unprepared after being broken by prankish Holloway celebrators.

Trustee Atkinson remarked "a stitch in time saves nine," and said that if the Board could not afford to do the needed work now they would only face much larger bills at the beginning of the new year.

Trustee Dr. Raynor said the Board was escaping a crop of woes from the fallowing out last Spring, when we gave in too easily to the pressure of the City Council." He remarked that everyone knew from experience in their own homes what was the ultimate cost of neglecting such repairs when first required.

Mrs. Spofford said that her experience last year as a member of the buildings committee had convinced her that no carpenter alone could keep up the repairs of forty schools.

Eventually the hiring of an additional carpenter was left over to the buildings committee, who were to take no action until they had received an advance from the finance committee that they could provide the needed funds.

The Board was informed by the buildings committee that on Friday afternoon the committee intended to wait on the streets committee of the City Council and ask that a number of lots adjoining the High School now owned by the city and used for the enlargement of the High School grounds. The chairman of the Board and the municipal inspector were invited to be present, and Trustee Beckwith commented that he had only one comment to make, the committee was too exclusive in its invitation, the whole Board should be present.

The first theatre-goers will be considerably interested by a ceremony which took place in Seattle on Monday when Miss Nina Guibert, became the bride of R. C. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Turner, of Esquimalt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Matthews, of Seattle, and Frank Turner, a brother of the groom, was best man, the matron of honor being Mrs. Tinder, sister-in-law of Mr. Turner.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

For those who travel, the name of the lucky gem to-day is particularly significant. The garnet is the talismanic stone, and the aquamarine exercises its good offices for those who were born on some anniversary of this day. The latter is set in gold on a ring, since it insures a pleasant trip, good accommodations and profitable results.

New friends are promised those who wear the aquamarine. According to ancient superstition, these will be acquired through frequent change of friendship, the aquamarine promises great profits through kind offices of social acquaintances.

Green is the lucky color to-day. Those who wear it are promised particular good fortune.

The chrysanthemum is to-day's lucky flower.

To Present Picture.—The officers and members of Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., are requested to be present at the Girl's Central School on Friday, November 12, at 2:15, when the picture of the Prince of Wales in military uniform is to be presented to the school by the Chapter, this being the school of their adoption.

THE SUMMERS FUND.

A meeting of the trustees of the Summers Fund was held on the evening of November 2 at the K. of P. Hall. The fund was raised by public subscription in July and August of 1914 as a mark of sympathy with Mrs. Summers and her infant family in the loss they sustained when their home on Victoria Street, Saanich, was destroyed by fire and Mr. Summers lost his life in endeavoring to save that of his infant son.

On the close of the subscription list a public meeting was held in Christ Church schoolroom, when Mrs. Galbraith, Mrs. White, Very Rev. Dean Doull, Joseph Ley and Leonard Tait were appointed trustees for the administration of the fund.

The trustees appointed Mr. Tait to act as secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Galbraith has left the city and Rev. G. H. Andrews has been duly appointed to succeed Dean Doull and the remaining trustees remain as originally elected.

At the meeting Mr. Andrews, Mrs. White and Mr. Ley were present, and Mr. Tait not having been able to attend, Mr. Ley was called upon to conduct the meeting. It was resolved that the local newspapers (through whom subscribers the bulk of the fund was subscribed) should be asked to cooperate in an audit of the accounts of the fund to date.

It was also resolved to ask the doctor who had recently attended the Summers children during an attack of diphtheria to submit his bill to the trustees for payment. An application will be made to the Mothers' Pension Board on behalf of Mrs. Summers. The meeting then adjourned until November 22.

A DANGEROUS WARNING —BLEEDING GUMS

Are your gums tender? Do they bleed when brushed? If so—watch out for Pyorrhia.

This disease of the gums, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, not only destroys the teeth, but often wrecks the health.

In Pyorrhia, the gums become spongy, then recede; the teeth decay, loosen, and fall out—or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhia germs which breed in pockets about them. These germs lower the body's vitality and cause many diseases.

You can keep Pyorrhia away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums prevents Pyorrhia—or checks its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean.

Start using it today. If your gums have receded, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

35c and 60c tubes in Canada and U.S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

FOR THE GUMS

fact that the old system in vogue had not been sufficient to face the situation at the outbreak of war, and it was only through the unselfish sacrifice and bravery of the men of the Empire that had saved the flag from being dragged down to defeat.

Too much could not be said for the men who had fought and too often given their lives overseas, and it was not they that were responsible solely for the prevailing unrest, Col. Foster said.

Social, religious and economic unrest were on a par with the political chaos, he stated, and could be remedied only in the same manner, namely by all combining self-sacrificingly for the good of the common cause.

The Belgians had said that the Allied troops stopped too soon, be that as it may, and that the spirit of the men who had been stopped too soon and what the country needed was more of the spirit of devotion to duty and self-sacrifice that had actuuated Canada's men overseas.

Remedial Efforts.

The present was the time to set aside things of lesser moment, said the Colonel, and to concentrate on the one plan of effecting a carefully thought-out remedy for the good of the country. This could be done, and it was the duty of all to lend their aid to the work. What Canada needed most was the ability to combine to set the affairs of the country to rights. To effect this the return of the soldiers from the front to the country in the war would be the most essential, and he would suggest that as the first requisite to any further progress.

The Belgians in the town of Mons had spent four years under the oppression of the enemy, but had never lost faith that their country would gain them their liberty, and that too was the spirit of faith that he would advocate for the remedy of the ills of the country, and the world at large. Col. Foster then referred to the record made by the Canadians in the war.

Mr. Crosby.

Speaking on the rejuvenation work of the Canadian City Bureau, Robert Crosby addressed the gathering on "The Obligations of Peace." Robert Crosby, manager of the drive for the American and Canadian City Bureaux also spoke, taking as his subject "Community Effort."

In commemoration of the lives of the gallant men who gave their lives in the entire gallantry of the war, the request of the president, Clifford Denham paid that silent tribute by standing for two minutes. Mrs. Jessie Longfield rendered "Kipling's Requiescent" in a manner that won for her an ovation that was answered with an encore, for which she sang "The Fields of France." President Denham then introduced Col. W. W. Foster, D.S.O., to the gathering, who stated he had been one of the first men to re-enter Mons after the taking of that stronghold by the Canadians as the conclusion of the war.

Two Opinions.

Col. Foster, in opening his address, stated that the conditions of unrest that were now being experienced by the world were only the natural consequence that history told followed every war, and that in this case as in that, it had been more extended, and general than ever previously, so the conditions of unrest were more pronounced.

The unrest, he told his auditors, was not to be attributed alone to the men who returned from overseas, as even if these had not returned, but had joined their comrades who fell in Flanders, the unrest would still prevail among the survivors.

He advised his auditors to bear in mind two points—the first, "I am a citizen of no mean city," and the second—like the old adage, "On my future I have nothing to say, but my past is spotless."

Mr. Crosby told of the forthcoming campaign to popularize the Chamber of Commerce, and make it the leading institution for public good in this country.

"Lie down, you are in fresh water now," was the third motto that Mr. Crosby asked his audience to carry in their hearts, as they lent their efforts to the rejuvenation of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Rotary Club passed a resolution endorsing the campaign and tendering every support to the forthcoming drive for membership.

The "job-finding" contest has been concluded, decision being given in favor of Messrs. Brady, Butterfield and Myers, who tied.

Committee under the leadership of P. C. Abell, consisting of Messrs. P. C. Abell, C. E. Sculthorpe, P. B. Sculthorpe, George I. W. Caville, and Secretary Goodliffe, are at work on the completion of a constitution that has formerly been left in an unwritten state. The completion of the written constitution is being requested by International Rotary organizations.

Names' Delegate.

J. C. M. Keith has been appointed delegate for the Rotary Club at the forthcoming conference of the Provincial Arts and Industrial Institute to be held at the Public Library on Wednesday next at 8 p.m., for the purpose of discussing the establishment of a library and gallery in Victoria.

The support of all Rotarians was advocated to-day. The club will also assist to support the charity ball to be given by the W. A. to the Royal Provincial Jubilee Hospital, to be held at the Empress Hotel on November 26.

Speaking of the political unrest, Col. Foster stated that it was a great thing to have so many interested in the welfare of the country, provided that these combined to work out the moderate course, and prevent the pendulum from swinging so far to the left, as had been the case in Russia, until misery had come from this cause.

During the war men in public posts in Canada had not enhanced their opportunities, but because the wrong men had been in office, but that did not condone the general fault, destructive criticism with what an individual did not agree.

Spirit of Devotion.

Constructive criticism, with the idea of helping those in office would be of immense benefit, but it was too often the wrong type of criticism that was levelled unthinkingly at the heads of the public men who were endeavouring to do their best, said Col. Foster.

One thing that stood out from the chaos of unrest, he stated was the

The liner Arizona Maru sailed from Yokohama November 1 and is due here November 15. She has 110 tons for Victoria and 140 tons for Vancouver. In her passenger accommodation the liner carries this voyage 29 first class and 91 steerage for Seattle and four steerage for Victoria.

The Arizona Maru has a large shipment of Japanese oranges aboard, the first of the season's movement from Japan. This is the Arizona's second eastbound voyage.

SPEED SHOWN BY GOVERNOR ON TRIP

Admiral Boat Negotiated Run From San Francisco in Forty-eight Hours

Making the run up the coast from San Francisco in exactly forty-eight hours, the Pacific Steamship Company's steamship Governor arrived here at 11 o'clock this forenoon.

On her last southbound trip from this port the Governor was severely crippled by the breaking of her propeller when off Cape Blanco, and, forced to proceed at reduced speed, reached San Francisco ten hours behind schedule. Officers of the Governor state that the mishap occurred through contact with a floating log as the vessel was heading down the California coast.

The O. S. K. liner Manila Maru, on her twenty-third eastbound voyage, sailed from Yokohama November 6 and is expected to dock here November 19. Manila has 220 tons of freight for Victoria, and 56 tons for Vancouver. She has seven first class and 45 steerage passengers for Seattle.

ROWDIES TOOK CHARGE OF STEAMER AT SEA

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 11.—Forced to abandon her voyage north by four huskies, who it is alleged smashed the ship's fittings, assaulted the captain, defied the crew and maltreated the passengers, the coastal steamer Aspy docked at North Sydney Monday night after an amazing tale of misery on the high seas.

Two men named McElernan and another named McFernan from Meat Cove took passage north on the steamer. It is reported they were intoxicated and failed to understand that the steamer does not go to Cape North until Tuesday. In their disappearance, they attacked Captain York, threw a passenger named Christensen through the engine-house skylight and assaulted an old man named Donovan and general took charge of the ship. From Briton Coyle, the Captain telephoned the North Sydney police and then turned his boat around and steamed back. After a tough fight the men were arrested.

CHANGE IN MASTERS OF G.T.P. VESSELS

Captain Naden, posted to take the Prince John north and Captain Moorhouse of the Prince John, will go out as captain of the Prince George on her next trip. It was also stated that Captain D. Donald, master of the Prince George, has been temporarily relieved from duty, but no statement was made as to the cause for this action.

EVIDENCE TO BACK UP CHARGES SAYS PATRICK

Attorney-General of Alberta Will Be Presented With Evidence

Vancouver, Nov. 11.—Frank A. Patrick, president of the P.C.H.A., claims that he is in possession of evidence that will prove conclusively that players in the Alberta Big Four Amateur Hockey League received money for their services last season.

In this respect the accuser makes it plain that the situation was so flagrant that any person in touch with "hockey" in Western Canada must be cognizant of the fact that there were underhanded tactics employed in the operation of the Big Four.

Get More Money.

"When players who are admittedly cashing in on their ability refuse even to negotiate with professional clubs there must be some factor that has a greater appeal; that factor can be measured in dollars and cents," said Mr. Patrick.

The local chief refers to a certain editorial that appeared in the Calgary Morning Albertan recently, wherein the resignation of Bob Pearson from the "Big Four" was discussed and where it was emphasized that his leaving for "personal reasons" was no compliment to amateur hockey in the prairie town.

Plenty of Evidence.

Mr. Patrick states that in the event of Hon. J. R. Boyle, Attorney-General of the Province of Alberta, being sufficiently interested in the welfare of amateur to investigate the charge, evidence will be supplied that will establish the assertions "beyond any doubt."

Waiting for Letter.

Calgary, Nov. 10.—The Canadian Press got into touch yesterday with Hon. J. R. Boyle, Attorney-General of Alberta, and asked him what he was going to do in respect to the "�overnmental charges" concerning the Alberta Big Four Hockey League by Frank Patrick, president of the professional hockey league at the Pacific Coast.

"I would not like to make a statement in respect to this matter until I have received and considered the letter which you say Mr. Patrick has sent."

"However, you may say that I am not going to assume that everybody in hockey is crooked without some evidence to start with. I think it is only fair to assume that reputable men are interested in clean sport and because someone writes a letter and says they are not reputable, I am not going to be swayed into forming a contrary view. There must be some more than a letter. Nothing is easier than to write a letter and to make charges."

Something to Talk About.

The Patrick charges will probably form one of the principal subjects of discussion at the meeting of the Alberta Amateur Union in Calgary next Saturday morning.

Alan Macaw, president of the Big Four, refused to make any comment in Mr. Patrick's charges other than to say that the amusement tax issue was the concern of the rink managers.

DUNCAN WON AND LOST IN BASKETBALL GAMES

Duncan, Nov. 11.—A big crowd of enthusiastic supporters turned out on Tuesday evening to witness the double-header attraction in the basketball realm of sport. In the senior game, Duncan went down to defeat before a quintette representing Chemainus to the score of 5-10, and in the preliminary games the local intermediates scored a victory from an aggregation representing Crofton, to the tune of 2-14.

Rival Factions to Meet Friday in Efforts to Reach a Settlement

It all depends upon the length of time taken by the Australian liner Niagara to stock up at Vancouver as to whether or not Victorians will have the signal honor of sending the Major League Johnson, Washburn and Hardy, members of the United States tennis team who are bound for Australia in search of the famous Davis Cup.

J. G. Brown, secretary of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, stated this morning that nothing definite could be said, and if she spends four or five days in Vancouver the crack tennis players will come to Victoria. The highest hopes are entertained that they will be here, and on previous visits this coming the Niagara has usually consumed five full days at the Terminal port. A little fog in Burrard Inlet would just about solve the problem, and Victoria would have the greatest tennis treat in its history.

Schwengers to Play.—While everyone will be keen to see the players in competition against one another in the doubles, it is more likely that local tennis fans will have the pleasure of watching the major league players meet in a joint session in Chicago Friday to effect a peace pact.

The National Association of Minor Leaguers, after listening to both sides in the controversy, voted to help avoid a war by agreeing to appoint a committee to act with the major leagues in devising a plan for baseball reorganization.

Keep Lawyers Away.—The sixteen club owners of the two warring leagues agreed to meet in the same room in Chicago and attempt to adjust their differences without the aid of any outsiders. It was agreed that the club owners still attend this meeting and that President Johnson of the American League and President Heydler of the National and others who have participated in recent sessions shall remain away. Major league leaders pointed out that if lawyers are excluded from the meeting, so that no "technical questions" could be raised, the threatened war could be quickly settled.

The agreement to make a last-minute attempt to avert baseball war was reached at a meeting of the directors of the American League at noon yesterday, and was one of the results of conferences between the owners of the rival major league factions. The peace news was announced in dramatic fashion in the middle of an address Garry Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati Nationals, was delivering to the minor league meeting.

Arrangements have been completed to hold the meeting in the Drill Hall. This will be one of the finest places where such a match could be staged. There will be plenty of room and the concrete floor will provide the fastest court that can be found anywhere. It is expected that seating capacity will be provided for 1,500 spectators and it is certain that this space will all be utilized if the stars perform here.

STECHER VS. O'DONNELL—New York, Nov. 11.—Efforts are being made to have Joe Stecher, world champion heavyweight wrestler, meet Steve O'Donnell, the French giant, in the wrestling tournament to be held here November 22. Strangler Lewis and Wiadek Zbyszko have been signed for a finish match.

DO NOT THINK C.H.A.

CAN MAKE THE GRADE

As the Ladies' League in the Sunday School basketball series will commence before the other sections, the ladies are requested to meet at the V. M. C. A. on Thursday evening, November 18, at 8 o'clock.

Two or more ladies' delegates from each ladies' team are expected to be present prepared to enter their team in the competition this season.

Entries will be received at this meeting and a schedule of games will be drawn up as soon as possible.

It is hoped the season to run the ladies' basketball in the same class for the heavyweights and another for the lightweights, as it has been found in previous years that several of the younger and lightweight teams have been completely outclassed by the older and more experienced players.

By this method it is hoped to create more interest in the ladies' competitions, and also to secure a large number of entries.

A general meeting of the Senior and Intermediate Leagues will be called in the near future when all will be received and a schedule of games drawn up for both these divisions.

The Senior League this season will probably consist of the following tract, calling for $2,000 for the season, but he declined to jump to the top ranks. Goodman, from the same club, is another player who refuses to be tempted from the amateur ranks by the proposed new league. So it goes down the line, player after player has been approached by the C.H.A. But they refuse to listen to reason. It is understood that perhaps what will happen in the local arena is the N.H.L. plans for the coming season call for the Quebec and Canadian franchises to be operated in Montreal; Ottawa at Ottawa, and St. Pat's at Hamilton. If St. Pat's are eventually successful in securing ice privileges from Quinn and Company, the Quebec franchise will be moved to Hamilton and the circuit will consist of Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton.

There are very few hockey fans here who take the C.H.A. seriously, and it appears to be the general opinion that the N.H.L. will be the only pro. hockey body in the East this season.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—The Canadian Hockey Association now claims twenty-one players. They include Amos Arbour, last season with the Canadiens; Bert Corbeau, from the same club; Sprague Cleghorn, of the Ottawas; Cully Wilson, of the Toronto, Reg. Noble, of the Trenton, and Leo Hartley, of the Waterloo. Hartley, however, to have accepted advance money from Canadiens; so is likely to play for Kennedy again. Sprague Cleghorn, so reports have it, is in the same position with Ottawa. Arnott, according to rumors, will stay in Belleville. Wilson desires to play for Harvey Sprule again, and Noble is awaiting developments. So much for some of the players the C. H. A. is said to have grabbed.

Attracts Widespread Interest

The magnificent settings of the spectacular production "Chu Chin Chow" drew unstinted approbation from the capacity houses witnessing the matinee and night performances of the colorful Oriental spectacle at the Royal Victoria Theatre. It might be stated without fear of contradiction that no musical production heretofore appearing here has attracted such widespread and favorable comment.

Last night the crowded auditorium greeted the truly wonderful succession of dazzling settings, the principal artists and the popular song features of this famed musical extravaganza with continuous bursts of spontaneous applause. The street scene in Bagdad; the wonderful "Blue Palace" scene; the volcano, the subterranean treasure cave, the slave market, and the gorgeous Oriental fashion parade, all masterpieces of the modern producer's art, proved fascinating to the highest degree and drew enthusiastic comment from every section of the house.

The clever acting of the principals and the gorgeous costuming attracted of prominence are gathered. A noted musician is giving a demonstration of his hypnotic powers. A woman, prominent socially, is his subject. Around her neck is a necklace containing a pearl of great value and price. As she is about to pass under the hypnotist's influence the lights go out and the room is in total darkness. They are only extinguished a minute. But when they are flashed on again the pearl is gone. No one has entered the room. No one has left it.

This is the big situation in "The Blue Pearl," the big super-feature which comes to the Romano Theatre for three days this week. It was a big Broadway success when it was produced on the speaking stage in New York by the Messrs. Shubert.

How the pearl is found in possession of the one least suspected, and the methods taken to unmask the thief, provides several reels of suspense, many thrills and plenty of comedy in the most conventional way.

Directed by Lawrence Weber with a cast of New York favorites, among whom are Edith Hallor, Florence Billings, Fair Binney, Lumasden Hart, Carlos Giles, Richard Halliday, and others.

Chartering a complete street carnival company, including every animal, tent and person connected with the organization, forms an interesting chapter of the production history of "Something to Think About," which is showing all week at the Dominion Theatre. Cecil B. De Mille, producer of this unusual Paramount serial, who wished to establish in the mind of his young feminine character the difference between two men—the one youthful and virile; the other older and crippled. With this object in mind, he selected a day at a typical country fair as the time and place. The two men, the girl and her father comprise one group of visitors. But it was first necessary to duplicate the country fair in question. This difficulty was solved by leasing a travelling store and setting it up for a period of one week, adding daily to this background half a thousand "extra people." The carnival included the usual fat lady, the snake charmer, fire eater, hula hula dancers and other freaks and strangely talented performers. All entered into the spirit of the picture and lent to this episode a striking note of realism.

Russian Artists in Whirlwind Dancing Is Film Theme

Boris Fridkin's Co. Occupy High Place in Vaudeville

Bill at Pantages Days

Boris Fridkin's company of Russian dancers take first place on the vaudeville programmatic offering at the pantomime playhouse.

In an effective Russian setting the members of this talented company of artists introduce novel Russian dances and folk songs and the performance is worthy of unstinted praise.

Although the whirlwind dances are quite a feature there are numerous other contributions that will appeal to the vaudeville public in the nature of vocal solos and the quaint music peculiar to the Russian folk songs.

One of the members of the troupe, a blonde, has made an excellent impression in his expressive interpretation of "Thora." The company is composed of five performers all of Marshall, Texas, Nov. 11.—Imprisoned by flames, four-year-old Frederick Murphy yesterday sought vainly to save the life of his infant sister, Mary, who, seventeen months old, and himself perished in the attempt.

The child's heroism was rewarded with the discovery of the two bodies fearfully burned in a corner under the bed in a flame-destroyed room of the Murphy home, the boy hugging his sister closely in his arms. Murphy, returning from a neighbor's house, found his own residence in flames and suffered critical burns trying to reach her children.

“CRAMP IN FINGER” PREVENTED SUICIDE

Mason City, Ia., Nov. 11.—C. H. Wilson, who shot and dangerously wounded his wife in a quarrel involving a lodger in their rooming house last night, was alleged by the police to have intended to kill her and to have declared he intended also to kill himself, but “got a cramp in my finger.” He said his wife had told him she wanted to get rid of him.

TOKIO GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL OIL

Washington, Nov. 11.—Monopoly of petroleum production in Japan and its possessions is planned by the Japanese Government, according to advice to the Department of Commerce to-day from Tokio. Action will be delayed, however, until Parliament meets in January, the adviser stated.

Japan produces only one per cent. of the world's petroleum, the advice added, but governmental control of the oilfields is planned to insure the Japanese navy an adequate supply.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL PASSED BY BRITISH COMMONS

London, Nov. 11.—The Irish Home Rule Bill passed the House of Commons on its third reading to-night after a motion for rejection of the measure had been defeated, 133 to 52.

JUDGE WANTS TO SEE SCENE OF MOTOR SMASH

J. E. McMullen, before Mr. Justice Macdonald in the Supreme Court to-day opened the defence of the E. & N. Railway in the suit for $10,000 brought against it by Henry Edwin Allen, of Nanaimo, as a result of the collision of the Allen car and a freight train at a level crossing on the Island Highway when the car was crumpled up, one man killed, and three knocked unconscious.

The railway claims that there was too much speeding going on, and the Allen car was moving so fast that it could not be stopped although the driver saw the train coming.

E. A. McDermid, assisted by his son, Neil McDermid, for Mr. Allen has called fourteen witnesses. Mr. McMullen is to call ten for the defense.

Mr. Justice Macdonald announced that he would likely make a trip to Nanaimo to have a look at the railway crossing.

SHINGOLEEN

“A Bapco Product”

Registered.

THE MOST EFFICIENT Shingle Finish

THE popular demand for a Shingle Finish more durable in quality and more permanent in color is fully met in “SHINGOLEEN.”

The fact that this high grade BAPCO product is endorsed by the leading architects and painters throughout the West, is sufficient proof of its durability and uniform quality. It penetrates the shingle thoroughly, at the same time leaving a tough oil on the surface, which binds the color pigments, making them permanent and clear. It is equally effective on Shingles, Rustic Siding or Rough Lumber. 14 Colors.

CALGARY WANTS “BIG FOUR” INVESTIGATED

Newspapers Call for Inquiry;
Amateur Union Wires for Affidavits

Calgary, Nov. 11.—The Calgary Herald says editorially to-day:

In view of the definite charges that have been made by Frank Patrick, president of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, to the effect that the Big Four Hockey Association is really a professional body, although it has been operating as an amateur organization, there should be a complete investigation no matter whether Attorney-General Boyle has authority to take action or not. It is hardly probable that his department has any power in the premises, as it appears that the non-payment of the amusement tax last winter was a matter that had been arranged before the season opened. Non-payment of this tax is the only reason that could be advanced why the Attorney-General should interfere.

However, there is a body that should take action, and that is the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union, and it is gratifying to record that General H. F. McDonald, C.M.G., D.S.O., president of the branch, has sooner heard that Mr. Patrick had preferred charges than he wired him to telegraph affidavits dealing with these accusations in order that they may be presented to the governors of the Alberta branch, who will meet in Calgary next Saturday morning.

Time Inquiry Was Held.

There has been so much adverse comment in other provinces respecting the migration of hockey players to Alberta and so many expressions of suspicion as to the athletes standing of the athletes involved that it is high time an inquiry was instituted to throw full light on the circumstances.

Alberta can not afford to have a bad name in athletics and before the hockey season opens the players' status should be established on an honest and permanent basis.

The players and their managers must come to understand that Alberta insists on honest, honorable athletics.

Bulletin.

Calgary, Nov. 11.—That Hon. J. R. Boyle, Attorney-General of Alberta considers that Frank Patrick's charges against the Alberta Big Four Hockey League are no affair of the government, was the purport of a statement which he gave to The Calgary Herald this afternoon. The Attorney-General has a suspicion that Mr. Patrick is actuated by selfish motives, and he who remains in calculated propaganda on the part of the coast hockey magnate. He estimated that there will be no investigation by his department.

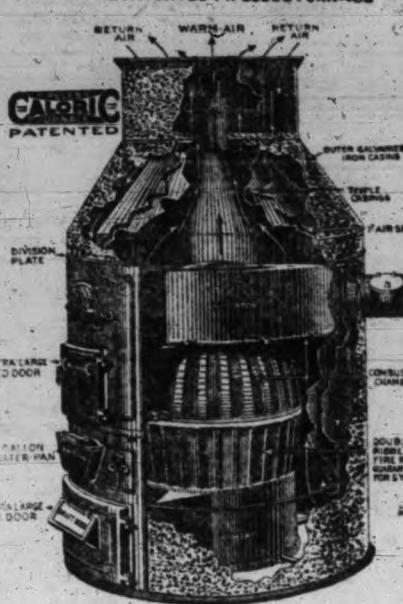

According to the police here, number 10, four of the automobile which had been detached, were issued to Ivan L. Slavich of San Francisco. An inquiry addressed to Chief White of the San Francisco police department brought the information that Slavich was last seen at San Jose several days ago, and that he had possession of the automobile.

CHICAGO GRAINS AGAIN BREAK

Conservatives Knew Everything Before Nominating Him, Hinchliffe Says

PRIOR ALLEGIANCE TO TRUTH AND JUSTICE

Canon Hinchliffe last night explained to 350 persons mostly returned men, at the Alexander Club, how he happened to be running on a party ticket supporting W. J. Bowser, K.C., and what his attitude is to be towards the Conservative party.

"Why am I on the Conservative ticket?" the Canon asked.

The Conservative party knew exactly what they were taking. I stated my position clearly on the night of the convention and to Mr. Bowser, as its leader, but I also owe a prior allegiance to truth and justice.

I shall announce publicly in the presence of Mr. Bowser that if the time comes when I cannot adhere to my ideals and his leadership, then we shall go different ways.

"My own definite promise refers to principles. Whatever measures are shown to be right and good I will support."

Not To Be Little Opponents.

"I will not blame the Liberal opposition for everything that has happened. Their faults, if they have any, will not be advertised by me. If my only means of obtaining a seat is by belittling my opponents, you may be absolutely sure that I shall foot the poll. I don't want it, you can have it."

You don't take this election business seriously enough and when your men are elected they don't take their position seriously enough."

"You honor the Union Jack as the symbol of your British liberty. You would not use it for any degraded purpose. And yet you will degrade your franchise, which is not a symbol but the highest form of the expression of your British citizenship."

Clean Up Rotteness.

"Can you wonder that Legislatures are rotten and unclean when you know the unfairness and misrepresentation that is rampant during election time."

"I am no Hercules. Men great and noble have tried before me to clean out the Aegean stables. But there is a Hercules if he only waken up. With the return of some of the best and respectable electors of this Province waken up and understand their power and use it, and say we are not going to have rotten legislation, then will affairs be cleaned up. If you are to have honest and clean government it must begin with yourselves."

Canon Hinchliffe said that he and others had worked to get the expression of opinion of returned men, and the Sunday afternoon meeting of fifteen men, representing five organizations, had been called but failed to get anywhere.

Wanted Returned Men's Opinion.

Some persons in the audience said that the idea of what went on in some returned soldier organizations before the Conservative nomination had been an attempt to divide the returned men and enlist them in support of Mr. Bowser.

Canon Hinchliffe, however, asserted that he advocated at the meeting of fifteen men, getting an expression of opinion from returned men by means of a mass meeting.

"It is not my fault, but against my earnest efforts that there has been no mass meeting of returned men to find out what you want," the Canon went on.

Not for Reopening Bars.

The Canon said that he would work for a liquor law such as had the great mass of public opinions behind it and can be enforced.

"I would not ask for the reopening of the bars and you don't want a wide open Province," he said.

He declared himself in favor of exempting the actual site of churches to the inch, but if a church wants a lawn or garden around the church, let it be taxed.

He urged a square deal to the municipality, the laborer, farmer, civil servant, financial schools, favoring one at the expense of the other. He said that in bringing in outside capital care must be taken that the Province's resources are not handed over to trade combines.

Square Deal for All.

"My chief endeavor will be a little more than a square deal, to such as my proposed, and the widows of those who have fallen." The Canon went on to argue that a square deal had always been obtained from the Federal Government. But it may well be that after ever it has been obtained from the Federal authorities, the little bit more might well be attended to by the Provincial Government.

He criticized the Provincial Government for not getting the liquor referendum and the election on the same day and saving the cost of $100,000, which could be used to benefit the soldier's widow, or go to the lumber camps to men with disabilities.

No Dark Dealings.

He commanded the Hon. Hart for calling the first canard of the election campaign and then referred to the stories of his interviews with returned men after his nomination which resulted in his being asked to explain in public his action in supporting Mr. Bowser. He said he never dealt with men in the dark and there had never been any such interviews or "cajoling" and intimidating by some returned men.

Conrad Thompson, who has been in bed for five years, was brought to the meeting from the Victoria Hospital and occupied a place on the platform. Conrad Thompson is the proposer on the Canon's nomination papers.

No Better Man.

Replying to a person in the audience who said that many persons who signed the petition to have the Canon run had done so under the belief that he was running as a

Boils So Bad
GIVE UP WORK

From the days of Job, up to the present time, boils have been one of the afflictions of the human race.

All the poulticing and landing you may do will not prevent them from breaking out again.

Boils are simply caused by the bad blood bursting out; and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.

Burdock-Blood Bitters, which has been the standard for over forty years, is well known as the greatest blood medicine procurable.

It purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul matter from the system, and when this is done the boils vanish, and you should never be troubled again.

Mr. James Fahey, Newport Island, Que., writes: "I was troubled with boils on my back and neck, so bad that I was obliged to give up work. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. Finally I went to a doctor, and he treated me for several weeks, and all without benefit. At last a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I decided to give it a trial. I got three bottles, but before I had taken two the boils were all gone. It is eight months now, and I have had no return of the old trouble, and have never felt so well."

With the imminent influx of many prairie families, Col. Winsby foresees a possibility that both the Central Schools and the Sir James Douglas School will be overcrowded this winter, these schools serving the district most favored by such visitors, and he forecasted the need of providing more accommodation at these schools by converting rooms used for other purposes.

IS ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT MANCHURIA

Country Offers Advantages
For Export of Canadian Goods

That a former Victoria bank clerk, J. A. Bell, is now engaged for the British American Tobacco Company in Manchuria was stated to The Times last evening by W. Sibley Bungey, of Manchuria, who arrived in the city yesterday, and is a guest at the Empress Hotel.

Mr. Bungey is general manager of the company in Manchuria, and a leading figure in the foreign white colony—for there is also a Japanese community—both located in a great busy Chinese city, at the junction of the Manchurian railway and the route connecting Peking with Siberia, also with Japan, via Korea, and with the coast.

There are about 150 white persons in Moukden, engaged chiefly in commercial enterprises, and having their commercial life apart in clubs, and some young men, as he writes, among some of the best class of Chinese in the world.

Of the Chinese administrators Mr. Bungey speaks in the highest terms, stating that the business is well-conducted, and a Chinaman's word is as good as his bond, among them in Manchuria.

He points out that the development of Manchuria is proceeding apace, that the agricultural and mining wealth of the country is immense, and that the Japanese are increasing their influence steadily in the country.

There are generally in China, Mr. Bungey states, "every class of manufactured article which is produced in the United States and exported, and which is also made in Canada would find a ready market in China, particularly in the North."

Mr. Bungey believes that Manchuria will be one of the future trade centres of the Orient, and that few parts of China afford a better opportunity for expansion under setted Government.

He will await the departure of the next outbound steamer.

A MEATLESS HOT PIE

Another Use Discovered For Those Oxo Cubes.

Here is a recipe calling for no meat other than the concentrated beef-goodness to be found in the familiar Oxo cube.

Peel and slice sufficient potatoes to half fill a large pie dish, add few small onions, also sliced. Put into cold water, bring quickly to a boil, boil one minute, then drain.

Put back in pie dish with few slices of tomato, season with pepper and salt and flavor with herbs.

Dissolve one Oxo cube in ½ pint of hot milk and pour over mixture. Put few bits of butter on top and bake for two hours in moderate oven. It's delicious.

All dealers sell Oxo in tins of four, ten, and fifty cubes.

Substitute Teachers to Be

School Attendance

At last night's session of the School Board, Trustee Mrs. Andrews brought up the question of the new King Road School, and questioned the policy of placing it in its present position.

He declared that the matter had never been officially brought before the Board by a report from the committee of the whole.

Trustee Capt. Aitken disagreed, and said that the decision to have the building placed as decided was approved by everyone. Mrs. Andrews said she wanted to be on the record as opposed to the location, preferring the structure should face the street instead of the south.

Municipal Inspector Winsby, when asked for his opinion, approved the location decided upon, and pointed out that the most artistic view of the building was now presented to the street. On the vote everyone save Mrs. Andrews voted "aye" the dissenting opinion being specially recorded after Mrs. Andrews remarked, "nay, and you'll kindly record my vote."

Trustee Capt. Aitken disagreed, and said that the decision to have the building placed as decided was approved by everyone.
